

HCH 7th Annual Summer Reception

Attention members:

If you are planning to attend Dixon's Gunmakers Fair in Kempton, PA July 29th thru July 31st, 2011, consider attending the summer reception as well. The event will be held on Friday evening, July 29th from 6:00 pm until 9:00 pm at the Jacobsburg Historical Society property, Belfast, PA. The site is approximately 40 minutes East of Dixon's. Directions will be available at the HCH table.

The event will take place under canvas in the flower garden area behind the J.J. Henry Mansion. You and your guests are invited to attend at a cost of $26 per person. We will be featuring an ox roast along with beverages and dessert. During the reception the Longrifle museum will be open to all.

The "Clash of the Titans", Roland "Preacher Man" Cadle versus Billy "Mouth of the South" Griner, will reach its climax. Voting and judging will take place at the reception and your participation is requested. When you sign in at the site, two horns will be on display: Horn "A" and Horn "B". Each person will be given a ballot to vote for the horn they think best represents the qualities of a North Carolina Banded Horn. Votes will be counted and the winner announced after the supper. Tom Ames, who has been in charge of the Accouterments Judging Panel at Dixon's for the past 27 years, will oversee the voting to insure adherence to the highest standards of conduct! Action will be taken should any illicit acts occur or are attempted! The winner will walk away with bragging rights and a $250 cash prize donated by Bill Scurlock's "Muzzleloader Magazine" and an anonymous benefactor within the Guild. To join in on the fun and have a rewarding experience plan on attending. You will be glad you did. The deadline for you to make your attention known is July 18th, 2011. This is your Guild, help us make it work to your benefit.
